Wow! I love it. I think it turned out really well.

Let me circulate it with our team.. and I'll see if they have any edits.

Hi Randy,
No problem. Once I have the translations, I'll be able to get the last two Spanish versions to you quickly.
Great, thanks for the full video track. I'll start on this today. When are you looking to have this completed by?

Thanks!

Hi Randy,
Sorry for the late send – here are the first three icons. The icons I made are showing the options in a pretty simplistic visual way so I wanted to pass these over before I finish. Let me know if these are working or if you were hoping for something different.

Thanks,

Oh, good! So glad to hear.

Are you thinking five icons – one icon to represent each? Or, an overall icon to represent all together? I could give this a try, absolutely.

Yeah! We're in great shape for the video. That sounds good about tweaking script – I'll take the script and/or track when it works for you.

Everyone loves it!! I've gone ahead and added them into the deck.

One final question -- if you were to represent these five things as an icon is there a version that would work for that purpose? I know it might take a slight alteration, but thought I'd see your thoughts. It would be great to tie them into the other hard materials for tomorrow's session.

Otherwise -- I think we are set for this phase.. and are in really good shape for the video version.

I'll likely tweak my script now that I know how everything works.. and get the track down. When would you want the script/track?

Randy,
Those are now updated at the same Frame.io link. I don't think I quite got the relocate focus programs edit correct – happy to hop on a call to discuss. When animating I had a tough time following the notes on what the changes needed to be.

One animation.

I think it could be intro slide, option 1 and then option 2.

Or we could do something where both options show on the same screen (although maybe too much?)

I think I'm following the Relocate Focus Program edits – will show you an update shortly. Are you wanting one full animation with option 1 and 2 shown or two separate animations?

Thanks!

For the add a focus program one, can we start with less kids. We'd still add in addition people, the way you've done. We've got to make the original school feel kore under enrolled

A little more feedback coming on the relocate focus program one.

Here's what was said:

It seems like with the relocate focus programs, we need to illustrate both possible scenarios… A building could be closed, and then a focus program moved in, or a focus program co-locating with another school.

Ok- how's this for an idea..

Ok- what do you think of this:

We show Option 1 :

Two schools on screen (each one has a different color), one fades and existing students also fade… and then we have the transition that you've created… with focus school coming over… school re-establishes but now in focus school color. Old focus school location fades to gray.

Option 2:

What we have now.. but schools are in 2 colors.

Receiving school is split into two parts: the original color moves to left half only.. and then the focus schools comes into the right side
