You don't often get email from derrell.walton@bvsd.org. Learn why this is important

Good morning Jonathan,

I work in the Procurement department at Boulder Valley School District, and I received a request from Rob Price to prepare a contract for the consulting services ERS will be providing to the District beginning this month. Furthermore, we have issued PO# 465619 and would like to put this contract in place to formalize the agreement.

Our standard purchasing contract is attached to this email in PDF format, with your proposal included as Exhibit A - Statement of Work. Can you please review, sign, and return this document to me at your earliest convenience? Alternatively, I can send you a digital signature request through Adobe Sign if that is easier.

Thank you and please let me know if you have any questions about the contract.

Contractors will be paid within forty-five (45) days after acceptance of goods and/or services and a correct notice of amount due, unless otherwise agreed to by contract. A liability shall not arise if a good faith dispute exists as to the District's obligation to pay all or a portion of the liability.

3. TERM/CONTRACT PERIOD. The time period to be covered by this contract shall begin on the Effective Date, or the date the parties execute this Contract, whichever is later, and shall end on the Expiration Date. The Parties may exercise this renewal option in writing, up to the number of periods specified on the Cover Page, prior to the expiration of the current term. Notice of intent does not commit the District to a renewal.
4. TERMINATION. This Contract may be terminated by the District upon not less than five days' written notice should the Contractor fail substantially to perform in accordance with the terms of this Contract through no fault of the District and may be terminated by the District with ten days' notice without cause. The Contractor shall not terminate this Contract, without the written consent of the District, other than for nonpayment as provided below. In the event of termination of this Contract not due to the fault of the Contractor, the Contractor shall be paid for Services performed to the date of termination, including reimbursable expenses then due. A settlement may be reached if the Contractor provides a supported claim and the settlement does not exceed the total contract price plus settlement costs, after deducting prior payments by the District, proceeds from any sales of supplies and materials agreed by the Parties, and the price of work not terminated. If the Contract is terminated for cause, the Contractor will be paid at the contract price for completed supplies or services accepted by the District. The District reserves the right to withhold payments to the Contractor to cover potential losses due to liens or claims and to offset the excess costs of acquiring similar goods or services elsewhere.
   4.2. PREPAYMENT REFUNDS. The Contractor will refund any sums that the District has prepaid and that remain unearned at the time of termination within 45 calendar days after termination, except as the Parties may otherwise agree in writing.
5. FORCE MAJEURE. Neither the Contractor nor the District shall be liable to the other for any delay in, or failure of performance of, any covenant or promise contained in this contract, nor shall any delay or failure constitute default or give rise to any liability for damages if, and only to the extent that, such delay or failure is caused by "force majeure". As used in this contract "force majeure" means acts of God; acts of the public enemy; acts of the District and any governmental entity in its sovereign or contractual capacity; fires; floods; epidemics or pandemics; quarantine restrictions; strikes or other labor disputes, freight embargoes; illegality, or severe weather. The Contractor shall not be in default by reason of any failure in performance of this contract in accordance with its terms if such failure arises as a result of "force majeure". Upon request of the Contractor, the District shall ascertain the facts and extent of such failure, and, if the District determines that any failure to perform was a result of force majeure, and that, but for the force majeure, the Contractor's progress and performance would have met the terms of the contract, the delivery schedule shall be revised accordingly, subject to the rights of the District.
6. VENUE AND CHOICE OF LAW. The District is a public school entity and all public school contracts made in the state of Colorado are governed by Colorado law. Contract terms or conditions to the contrary do not change this fact (C.R.S. § 22-1-135(2)(c).). The Contractor agrees that the exclusive venue for any action between the parties for claims concerning this contract shall be in Boulder County, Colorado. The laws of the State of Colorado, including related and rules and regulations, shall be applied in the interpretation, execution, and enforcement of this Contract. Any provision rendered null and void by the operation of this provision will not invalidate the remainder of this Contract to the extent that the Contract is capable of execution.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, no term or condition shall be deemed a waiver, express or implied, of any provision of the Risk Management self-insurance statutes at C.R.S. §§ 24-30-1501 - 1520, as now in effect or as amended ("Risk Management Act"). The parties understand and agree that the liability of the District for claims or injuries to persons or property arising out of negligence of the District, its departments, divisions, schools, board, officials and employees is controlled and limited by the provisions of the Risk Management Act.
10. INDEMNIFICATION. The Contractor shall indemnify, save, and hold harmless the District, its employees and agents, against any and all claims, damages, liability and court awards including costs, expenses, and attorney fees incurred as a result of any act or omission by the Contractor, or its employees, agents, subcontractors, or assignees pursuant to the terms of this Contract.
11. FUND AVAILABILITY. Any and all contractual financial obligations of the public school contracting entity are contingent on money to pay the obligations being appropriated, budgeted, and otherwise made available (C.R.S § 22-1-135(2)(d)(I)). In the event funds are not appropriated, budgeted or otherwise made available, the Contract shall be terminated on the last day of the period for which funds were appropriated or monies made available for such purposes. This provision shall not be construed to limit any other right of termination available to the District. Pursuant to C.R.S § 22-44-115, any obligation of a contract which requires expenditures contrary to C.R.S § 22-44-115(1), shall be null and void, and no school district monies shall be paid.
12. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR. Contractor must perform its duties as an independent contractor, pay all applicable employment taxes and income taxes for its employees incurred in performance of the Contract, and provide and keep worker's compensation insurance and unemployment compensation insurance in the amounts required by law. 13. COLORADO OPEN RECORDS ACT. Contractor acknowledges and agrees that District is subject to the Colorado Open Records Act, C.R.S. §§ 24-72-200.2 to 205.5, as from time to time amended, and that records provided or produced under this Contract, including the Contract itself, may be subject to public inspection in accordance therewith.
14. PROHIBITED TERMS. The terms and conditions below are prohibited from inclusion in public school contracts (C.R.S § 22-1-135). If they are included in a contract, they will be void ab initio, but the remainder of the contract will be otherwise enforceable.

14.2. ARBITRATION. Terms or conditions that bind a public school contracting entity to arbitration or other binding extra-judicial dispute resolution process.

16. CONFIDENTIALITY. Contractor agrees that any data accessed or given by the District in order to perform its obligations under the Contract (i.e. student personally identifiable information (PII), demographic data, financial data, etc., collectively referred to as "Confidential Data"), regardless of how Confidential Data is provided, remains the sole property of the District.

Services to be Performed

Education Resource Strategies will be providing consulting services for proactive community engagement as it pertains to potential school consolidation. (As per the attached 5 page proposal)

Boulder Valley School District

01/28/2026

The Opportunity

Like many districts nationally, the Boulder Valley School District (BVSD) is currently grappling with significant under-enrollment in specific regions in a time of fiscal constraint. To ensure that every student has access to a high-quality, well-resourced educational experience, the district must evaluate its current school footprint.

This project seeks to support BVSD leadership with a dual purpose. First, it intends to bring best-in-class resources and national expertise to educate community stakeholders on (a) the relationship between scale and service delivery, (b) what that means for individual schools and the system overall, and (c) the levers the district can pull to optimize the configuration of schools in service of service delivery/student experience. Second, it intends to help district leadership learn more about how different community stakeholders are currently thinking about issues related to changing the mix and configuration of schools generally (how well they understand the issue overall, what aspects of student experience are most important, how they think about the tradeoffs of different levers, etc.).

It will also better enable district leadership to refine its stakeholder engagement on this issue moving forward in ways that directly respond to stakeholder understanding and ultimately craft strategies that are more responsive to stakeholder priorities.

This project represents an important early-stage step in a broader districtwide conversation about enrollment and school configuration and will serve the district well as it shifts to developing a more comprehensive fact base to support future analysis and ultimately decision-making that aligns student experience, enrollment and the mix and configuration of BVSD schools.

Key Workstreams and Deliverables

Overview

ERS will provide "side-by-side" support to BVSD to design and execute a series of regional community engagement sessions in late March or early April 2026. These sessions will engage participants in a learning-focused discussion about (a) how enrollment trends shape resources, programs, and the student experience and (b) how changing the mix and configuration of schools in a system can change student experience. We will utilize two key exercises to drive participant learning and engagement over the course of roughly 90 minutes:

- Part 1: The "Day in the Life" Experience[i]: Demonstrates how different sizes/configurations of schools can impact student (and staff) experience.
- Part 2: Values-Based Configuration Optimization: An interactive exercise where participants make trade-offs to optimize the configuration of schools to provide the student (and staff) experiences they value most.

Key Workstreams & Milestones

Workstream I: Exercise Design, Customization & Piloting

i. Working title to be finalized through design process

ERS will develop the Day in the Life and Configuration Optimization Exercise tools in collaboration with BVSD leadership and will retain ownership of the final deliverable; BVSD will have full rights to use the tool for district purposes independently after the completion of this project as it sees fit. The specific elements of the exercise would draw on ERS' 20 years of relevant experience supporting districts' national research, input from a district leadership working group, and feedback from a broader cross-functional district team.

ERS will work with the district to design, test and pilot both exercises or tools during the project, using rapid learning cycles to gather feedback from leadership and other cross-functional participants. Insights from these learning cycles and pilots will be used to refine materials, facilitation strategies, and the exercise in real time, ensuring that actual stakeholder sessions in late March/early April successfully achieve the objectives outlined above. Outlined below are the major areas of work for workstream 1:

1. Development of "Day in the Life" & "Values-Based Configuration Optimization" Exercises
    - Using data and information collected through district leadership, the ERS team will develop illustrative "day-in-the-life" student profiles that will be recognizable to BVSD stakeholders (i.e. consistent with BVSD's current operational assumptions, academic programming models, and student support structures). These profiles will be used to surface likely student experiences in under enrolled schools that may have potential school configuration considerations in the future. We want these exercises to build understanding of some of the potential tradeoffs and challenges that students (and staff) experience in their day-to-day: what problems in student experience might changing the mix and configuration of schools solve?
    - Using research and experience from the field and ERS' history of working with systems and schools facing resource constraints, ERS would also develop a broader "Values-Based Configuration Optimization" exercise akin to ERS' Budget Hold'Em to build understanding of how different changes to school mix and configuration in a district can change different aspects of student and staff experience, and to help stakeholders reflect on the tradeoffs of such changes.
    - Note: While both exercises will be designed to align with BVSD context, they will explicitly not represent BVSD schools or students.
2. Piloting exercise content with cross-functional district groups & finalizing materials for community sessions
    - Once ERS and BVSD project leadership are aligned on the exercises, ERS would then pilot them with broader cross-functional district groups to test user experience, and collect feedback to refine design and facilitation procedures
    - Finally, ERS and BVSD project leadership would agree on the final materials to bring to the regional community engagement sessions described below.

Workstream II: Regional Engagement Planning and Execution

After aligning on exercise design, ERS would work with BVSD project leadership to design a series of regional community information meetings to engage families, caregivers, and community members.

Note: These meetings fit into a broader stakeholder engagement strategy – so it would be imperative for ERS & BVSD project leadership to align on the role that sessions play relative to engagement that has preceded and will follow them.

Meeting Objectives and Overview

ERS will support the district in planning and delivering six (6) regional meetings focused on the communities identified by BVSD that they think are most likely to be impacted by potential school changes. Beyond the engagement objectives described at the top of this document, the meetings will be designed to:

- Provide clear, accessible information and content
- Describe future engagement opportunities with the district on the topic
- Build trust through transparency and consistent messaging
- Surface initial questions and concerns to inform subsequent engagement phases

Outlined below are the suggested major responsibilities for meeting design & execution.

ERS Responsibilities	District (BVSD) Responsibilities	Joint Responsibilities
• Design the overall engagement approach and meeting objectives. • Develop all required materials for exercises (cards, visuals, presentations, and discussion guides). • Create facilitation protocols. • Train district staff and partners supporting meeting delivery. • Co-facilitate meetings alongside district leaders as appropriate. • Synthesize themes and questions raised across sessions. • Produce a summary memo/deck that synthesizes stakeholder feedback, concerns and areas of interest (per Workstream 3)	• Identify impacted communities and select locations for up to 6 regional meetings. • Secure meeting venues, dates, and logistical arrangements. • Lead outreach, invitations, and community communications. • Provide table facilitators, interpreters, translation services, and accessibility accommodations. • Ensure participation from relevant district leadership and staff. • Manage media inquiries and external communications related to the meetings.	• Finalize meeting agendas and run-of-show documents. • Align on messaging and framing for community communications. • Review and refine materials prior to public release. • Coordinate staffing roles for each session. • Debrief after each meeting to surface lessons and adjustments. • Agree on synthesis themes and reporting approach. • Determine next steps following completion of all sessions.

Workstream III: Stakeholder Data Analysis & Insight Development

Following the regional engagement sessions, ERS will synthesize stakeholder input to identify key themes and implications to inform the work moving forward. In advance of the meetings ERS would work with BVSD project leadership to align on the specific research questions and then prepare any supplemental data collection tools (i.e. end of session survey) accordingly. Stakeholder analytics could include:

- Value-Mapping Report: Analyze the "Optimization" choices made across all regional meetings to identify the top 3-5 priorities the community wants the district to protect.
- Meeting Participants and Broader Community Comparison Group: Synthesize findings from the engagement sessions alongside broader district polling to understand the ways in which exercise participants are or aren't representative of the full range of stakeholders.
- Regional Feedback Crosswalk analyzing themes by geography and stakeholder group, highlighting alignment and tensions with district priorities, and identifying implications for future options development and engagement phases
- Cross-Meeting Summary Report identifying key stakeholder insights and recommended refinements to the district's engagement and change-management approach for future phases

Proposed Timeline and Budget

ERS is prepared to begin work on the scope outlined above as soon as an agreement is reached with BVSD.

The proposed project timeline is approximately twelve (12) weeks in duration, with Workstream I estimated at six to eight (6–8) weeks, Workstream II at four to six (4–6) weeks, and Workstream III at two to four (2–4) weeks, pending final scope confirmation and district coordination.

	Feb	Mar	Apr	May
I: Tool Design & Piloting	X	X
II: Regional Meetings		X	X
III: Analysis & Final Reporting			X

The estimated project cost for ERS is $90,000, inclusive of travel and other out-of-pocket expenses. Because ERS sees significant national applicability to the exercises that will be developed through this project, we are able to access national foundation funding to significantly subsidize Workstream 1, reducing the BVSD share of the cost to $70,000.

The work would be led day-to-day by Dr. Angela King Smith ERS Partner, with strategic oversight from Jonathan Travers, ERS President.

As a nonprofit organization, ERS is proud to offer comparatively low rates, which our analysis suggests are significantly lower than those of for-profit consulting firms providing similar services to school districts.

About ERS

Every school. Every child. Ready for tomorrow.

Education Resource Strategies empowers school system leaders to make transformational shifts in resources, structures, and practices so that all students—especially those with the greatest learning needs and those furthest from opportunity—attend a school where they can learn and thrive. We partner with district teams, expand leaders' knowledge and skills, and share lessons and tools with the field.

We know that for every school to succeed for every student, schools must be organized differently from the rigid class sizes, fixed time blocks, and un-differentiated teacher roles that still define "school" today.

Ensuring positive learning experiences and high-quality instruction—in a fiscally sustainable way—requires significant resource shifts

Since 2005, we have worked hand-in-hand with the leaders of over 150 school systems and several states through partnerships focused on data (analysis & benchmarking), design (strategy, resource trade-offs & consensus building), and implementation (planning & monitoring). In all our work, we focus on the larger picture—how resources work together to create high-performing systems. Our non-profit status enables a different kind of partnership with districts and states: one in which we participate in the transformation struggle, create insights together, and share lessons with others.
