Meeting Overview

- Enrollment Decline: Lost 3,600 students since 2017; expect 1,700 fewer in next five years, creating 5,100+ open seats.
- Community Engagement: Gathered 6,000+ data points via multi-language sessions, surveys, and roundtables ensuring informed feedback.
- Top Priorities: Small class sizes, full-time staff, equitable funding, and neighborhood school proximity most valued by stakeholders.
- Support for Consolidation: 64% community and 50%+ teachers favor school consolidation; closures and grade reconfiguration seen as necessary.
- Board Direction: Strong consensus on bold 5-10 year changes; focus on transparency, long-term sustainability, and balancing proximity with equity.
- Next Steps: Plan with community input due late August; final decisions targeted for October with goal of stable smaller classes.
