Matt -

This all sounds good, we'll look for the planned schedules for field work - let's just plan to circle up when you are back and after your meeting on the 29th.

Have a great trip - I encourage you to not be able to check your email.

In the meantime, Jake and Alyssa have been reviewing CDs and are preparing fee adjustments/proposals for construction-specific and D&B scope. I have several of these to review today. I've also set a follow-up internal meeting for 12/29 to discuss progress.

I appreciate the follow up on these and the additional resources necessary to successfully execute these projects. Let me know if you have had the internal meeting you referenced and if there has been a follow up with BVSD PMs. I would like to have a meeting when you are ready to review all of these projects to disscuss anticipated scopes and schedules.

Thank you,

Kris Stoppenhagen

In addition to Alyssa and Jake, Sarah (Project Technician) and a forthcoming new hire will also support district work and will report directly to me.

Subject: BVSD Construction Specific investigations

Good morning,

Wanted to get with all of you in the same chain to try and understand your timelines and which projects may be more critical than others. Support staff and I have already started field work on Centennial and Birch. Centennial being the next one ready for bid. CD review has been started and or completed at Manhattan, Crestview, BCSIS.

I have yet to investigate Platt and Whittier. Please let me know if there is a school I'm missing.

I understand that getting items out before the end of the year is ideal, but I don't think is feasible with our timeline let alone typical timeline for procurement. Which schools can reasonably be pushed to bid out into January, February, and March? Typically, this would be schools with smaller scope where you can still see competitive bid pricing later in the spring.

Let me know if you have any questions or input into what you're comfortable with. I can shuffle work around to prioritize schools as needed. If everything is highly critical and in need of immediate attention, we will likely need to discuss which schools may need to go to other consultants.

I would prefer to assist on all of these if possible! Thanks in advance!
